

LEADING A HYBRID TEAM

"Leading a hybrid team requires a different set of skills, a different mindset, and a different approach." - John O'Leary

Leading a Hybrid Team is an essential course for managers and team leaders interested in leveraging both remote and in-person employees. Through facilitated discussions and hands-on activities, this course will provide guidance on how to foster effective communication between virtual and physical team members. It's also important to set expectations, manage workloads, and foster team collaboration and maintain morale.

Hybrid teams can sometimes play games pretending they are working at full capacity and this can mean others are picking up the slack. It's a good opportunity to make sure everyone is on the same page.

Key Course Content:

- Understand the challenges and potential solutions for leading hybrid teams
- Develop strategies to create an effective team culture when members are in different physical environments
- Implement best practices for virtual team communication and collaboration
- Identify the unique skills that hybrid teams bring to an organisation
- Increase impactful leadership techniques for managing a hybrid team
- Utilise data and analytics to measure team performance
- Leverage technology to drive team engagement and productivity

Target Audience:

The course can be tailored for the specific cohort whether it be the leadership team or another group of managers/team leaders
